

THE KRYON TEACHINGS

Channeled by Mario Liani

The Kryon Group is the name that Mario Liani uses to describe the loving energy of Kryon.

This energy is not a single entity, but a higher consciousness group of angelic realms that operates without individuality and with absolute synchronicity.

Kryon is channeled in several languages by different spokespersons around the world.

Mario Liani is just another channel for Kryon in the Spanish language.

Dear Humans:

We honor the intention of the human, whom, without knowing, activates healing around him. Therefore, honor the intention of the person* who generated this wave of love and gratitude for the Lightworkers' work, those who followed their calling without caring about the consequences.

Honor any good intention placed in the service of healing, a human who heals another human is vested with the power of the Holy Spirit, since he has been entrusted with a specific mission.

You all have the power to heal yourselves and to heal those around you, but only a handful are aware of this power. When a human realizes that he can heal others is because he has recognized the potential power vibrating in his window of opportunity.

This human must be honored, because, even though he has not taken the Hippocratic Oath before a society that conferred him this hard-earned right, he, as a spiritual creature, has sworn to himself that when the moment arrives, he will know and accept his mission, regardless of the consequences.

And here we are today, speaking of the human who heals others, and it's just fair that we speak of reciprocating, which is not different from giving love in exchange for the love received.

A healer who heals others with the sole intention of following his spiritual mandate places all of his capacity for love in the service of his calling. And the society who will benefit from his knowledge must recognize his wisdom and experience and must compensate him as it would any other professional.

If this healer lived in a tribe deep in the Amazon jungle, his grateful patients, his own neighbors more than likely, would provide him with food and clothing, and would make him comfortable and happy so that they can benefit from his services.

But here, in urban society, it's easier to reward him for his knowledge with a fare amount of money so that he can take care of his basic needs. You must be practical and reward him monetarily, but if you don't have it, reward him the best you can, with the right intention, because retribution is energy in action and its movement generates a continuous flow of abundance for all those involved, the healed and the healer.

Blessed be the healer, because when you heal the one who is in need of healing, he is ready to heal others.

Blessed be the healed, because when you are healed you understand that you can also heal...and in this way you help complete the Healing Circle.

The Kryon Group blesses you.

Background

*One of the subscribers of the Kryon group e-mailed some comments to Mario Liani –which Mario answered- and which have generated a wave of opinions in support of the work of Lightworkers and the just remuneration for their work.

Following is the message sent in by a group member –from Chile- titled: “Good bookkeeping makes for long friendships.”

Hi, Mario

How can begin...? I believe I am a good friend to my friends, and to me, being a good friend is to tell it like it is.

When I forward the Kryon messages to my friends, I delete the message at the bottom announcing that you are a numerologist, to me this is advertising and it takes the magic away from the messages.

It is my own perception, of course, and I could be wrong, but nothing pleases me more than when someone puts me in my place when I err.

I don't have to tell you how grateful I am (we are) for you work.

I just wanted to clear this up.

Love...

Mario's Answer to the message above

“...The Lightworker is also a professional who deserves just compensation for his knowledge...”

Hello, friend

I am grateful for your honesty, and frankly, I would prefer you didn't delete the information about what I do –or the way to contact me- because this provides the reader with information about the context in which the messages are received and why.

Meaning, I am a numerologist and as a Lightworker, I use numerology as a tool for personal growth, and because of it, I have the capacity to heal others with my knowledge and to align myself with the healing process at a collective level, as is the case here with the reception and distribution of information from higher sources.

Spirit gave me this gift, this knowledge, so that I could exchange it for money, and, by the way, I am a full-time numerologist and this is my only source of income (the diffusion of information and channelings are a service that I give without remuneration...and even if I did, it would be just and correct –as it is done by Lee Carroll and anyone else who is putting energy and time in the service of others- it is only right to receive something for what you give.

When you edit or cut off information about my profession from my texts, not only are you excluding information that could be essential to the readers in order to understand the context in which these messages are received, but you are also deciding for others what is “commercial,” and that letting others know about an honest and honorable profession, such as mine, could be negative, as if the word “commercial” –used by you and not me- were at odds with ethics, honesty and good intentions.

As a result of the censorship and judgment you unconsciously exert, you could in all probability be denying me the right to earn my living in an ethical, honest and professional way.

When you do this, by the way, you are depriving others not only of using their free will when it comes to using their own judgment or to have their own opinions on the matter, but you could also be depriving them of the possibility to be helped by someone like me through numerology.

And last, the implicit magic of the messages comes from the Source of All That IS, it is not contained in what is written or in the mechanics that brings the messages, it is in the heart and soul of the one who reads and processes them.

I sincerely hope that the firmness of my answer rather than offend you helps you to open up your perceptive horizons and not to judge others by what you think is.

Keep in mind, please, that when you judge my add in the messages as something negative, not only did you judge me, but you indirectly judged all the Lightworkers who need to advertise their profession, and that’s what prompted me to defend all of those who renounce the security of activities socially “accepted” in order to heal others with their unique, personal and non-transferable gift, and, therefore, priceless.

I leave you to reflect on these, and I renew my gratitude to you for your honesty, because it has given me the opportunity to publicly respond to a misgiving that may be shared by others.

Fraternally,

Mario Liani
Professional Numerologist (and proud of it)

Following Comments

Hello everyone!

Before anything, I would like to apologize to all those who were confused by the email in question; I was only sharing with all of you the answer I gave to the person who sent it.

I am the one who decided to keep her identity anonymous, on one hand because I did not ask for her permission and on the other hand to avoid "embarrassing" her, after all, she really gave me a wonderful opportunity to wave the flag in defense of the Lightworkers.

Thanks to her, I am now sharing with all of you many of the messages of support I received as a result of her email. And I would like to tell you that I do not consider the support received a personal thing, by that I mean that I do not feel it was directed only at me.

In my soul I feel that the comments from this person, who is blessed by all of us for her opportune synchronicity, generated a wave of positive feedback in support of the work many of us do (quietly or not), and created a powerful energy in favor of the gifts the Lightworkers give to humanity.

Perhaps the hidden purpose behind all of this was to put in motion this amusing little game that began with a most fortuitous comment. I believe that the messages and comments that follow will shed more light on the subject, to the benefit of all.

On the other hand, the Kryon Group also wishes to speak on the subject.

Enjoy it!

In love and service,

Mario Liani
